Why is communication important to human life Communication has always been an important part of human life. Language and the ability to express ourselves using that language come to us spontaneously. And the need to communicate is so inherent in human nature that we hardly realize that effective communication skills can be acquired and honed.

Symbolism, or semiotics as it's known in technical circles, plays such a large part in human communication because people are constantly looking for deeper meaning. Whether it's in the stars, drawn on a cave wall or in the newest visual content, we add such meaning to our communication through the use and interpretation of signs.
