Comprehensive student-friendly resources designed for teaching Cambridge International AS and A Level Literature in English (syllabus 9695) for first examination 2016. This Coursebook is a comprehensive guide to the study of Literature in English at AS and A Level, encouraging both the enjoyment of literature and rigorous academic study. It provides a clear approach for any Literature studies syllabus, and is divided into three parts: Part 1 and Part 2 covering poetry, prose and drama at AS and A Level respectively, and Part 3 covering key skills needed to succeed in assessment. It contains a range of stimulating literary material from around the world, including poems and extracts from plays and prose fiction, selected to include Cambridge set texts.

This updated resource provides full support for the Cambridge IGCSE®, IGCSE (9-1) and O Level Literature in English syllabuses (0475 / 0992 / 2010) as well as IGCSE World Literature (0408). Analyse how Carol Ann Duffy uses structure to convey meaning in 'Row', explore Anita Desai's first-person narratives and engage with characters in Tennessee Williams' play The Glass Menagerie. This coursebook encourages an enjoyment of literature while helping students write critical essays. It contains poetry, prose and drama from around the world to appeal to international students aged 14-16. The book takes an active approach to learning and stresses the importance of developing informed personal responses based on close textual study. Indicative answers to coursebook questions are in the teacher's resource and further practice is available in the workbook.

Cambridge IGCSE® English as a Second Language Teacher's Book is part of the series of resources which supports teachers and students through studying for the Cambridge IGCSE® or equivalent courses and accompanies the Cambridge IGCSE® English as a Second Language Coursebook and Workbook. The series is written by an experienced ESL teacher and trainer, and includes answers to all of the exercises in the Coursebook and Workbook. It features Top Tips to help teachers with the course and Differentiated Activities to stretch able students while supporting those that need more help.

Provides full support for students and teachers of the Cambridge IGCSE® Literature in English syllabus. In combination with the Cambridge IGCSE® Literature in English Coursebook this Workbook will enable students to prepare and practise, giving them confidence in the classroom and a wider enjoyment of literature. This Workbook gives students a wide range of activities to practise interrogating texts, asking questions when analysing extracts and additional support for essay writing. It includes a variety of learning-focused activities to build students' confidence, international content and a wide range of text extracts from around the world, and extra support for students, particularly in areas which may require additional support such as poetry, drama and unseen extracts.

We are working with Cambridge Assessment International Education to gain endorsement for this forthcoming title. Provide students with a clear structured route through the qualification, with opportunities to assess their own progress, as well as reflect on and discuss new ideas and concepts. - Offer an international approach with a variety of text extracts from around the world. - Practise the approaches required for success with writing practice at the end of each unit varying from planning practice to one-paragraph answers, to analysis of example responses, to full longform exam-style responses. - Build skills with a range of solo, pair and groupwork activities that use a range of active learning methods. - Take learning further with extension activities and material to encourage a wider curiosity in the subject. - Consolidate learning with unit summaries, key definitions of Literature terminology and revision tips. - Support students in applying their learning to their own chosen texts with the set text focus section. - Suggested answers/answer frameworks for all written tasks in the Student's Book in our Teacher's Guide.

Winner of the 2004 Orange Prize for Fiction A Picador Original Trade Paperback Hortense Joseph arrives in London from Jamaica in 1948 with her life in her suitcase, her heart broken, her resolve intact. Her husband, Gilbert Joseph, returns from the war expecting to be received as a hero, but finds his status as a black man in Britain to be second class. His white landlady, Queenie, raised as a farmer's daughter, befriends Gilbert, and later Hortense, with innocence and courage, until the unexpected arrival of her husband, Bernard, who returns from combat with issues of his own to resolve. Told in these four voices, Small Island is a courageous novel of tender emotion and sparkling wit, of crossings taken and passages lost, of shattering compassion and of reckless optimism in the face of insurmountable barriers---in short, an encapsulation of that most American of experiences: the immigrant's life.

A new series of bespoke, full-coverage resources developed for the 2015 GCSE English qualifications. Approved for the AQA 2015 GCSE English Literature specification, this print Student Book is designed to help students develop whole text understanding and written response skills for their closed-book exam. The resource provides scene-by-scene coverage of Priestley's play as well as a synoptic overview of the text and its themes. Short, memorable quotations and striking images throughout the book aid learning, while in-depth exam preparation includes practice questions and sample responses. See also our An Inspector Calls print and digital pack, which comprises the print Student Book, the enhanced digital edition and a free Teacher's Resource.

This student book covers every skill and topic in the CIE First Language syllabuses 0500 and 0522 in depth, showing students how to make progress and achieve their target grades.
