You can learn the concepts in SAP ABAP within 30 days but not language. Any programming language will take some amount of time. If you are fresh to programming, atleast will take 3-5 years to be expert (still depends on your logical skills). If you have atleast experience in any procedural programming language, will take 1-3 years.

Comments on: Teach yourself ABAP in one day ... congrats on learning ABAP. But I created my last screen nearly ten years ago. I think the real importance today is to be able to create data processing methods and function modules. Most of the time you either enhance existing transactions or you build so called state-of-the-art web transactions.
