We have just taken this highly original W126 in part exchange this weekend. It has a fantastic service history detailing regular maintenance by Mercedes Benz main dealers and specialists even though the car has only covered a minuscule 45000 warranted miles from new by 3 former owners. It was registered in September 1984 to a restaurant owner in Devon and even still bears the supplying dealers rear window sticker and the full array of owners manuals, service books, alarm fobs and all 3 keys .
