The answer is yes, the Singer 66 is a great machine for someone to learn to sew on. And that is as true now as it was then. Now a little bit about the machine...With the serial number AG169773, it was one of 35000 model 66 ' s commissioned on September 30, 1941. This machine is a great candidate for restoration, and is indeed in much need of it.

This Singer 66 was made in the 1920's and started out life as a treadle. Later, a Singer dealer added a motor and a numbered tension dial. The decal type is called "red eye" by collectors (There is also some green in the decals). I'm not sure of the exact age of this machine because the serial number was hard to decipher.
